Year Old Horse in a Great Race at Brighton Beach.

POPULAR HORSE THE VICTOR

In a Splendid Field Before an Enormous Crowd Event of the Year at Sea-side Track—Bookies Gave Good
Odds on the Successful Racer.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Ram's Horn, a four year old son of Bateau Tass, owned by Captain W. S. Williams, a western horseman and ridden by Sewell, won the rich Brighton Handicap, which has a guaranteed value of $25,000, at Brighton Beach this afternoon before a crowd which completely overtaxed the facilities at the sea-side track.

The western colt went to the post at 9 to 2 in the betting being second choice to Dandelion, the favorite at 4 to 1.

Pressing the winner hard at the finish was First Mason, who finished second, beaten in a neck. A length further back and taking the short end of the purse, was Tokalon, the winner of the Brooklyn Handicap. All three horses that finished in the money are owned by western men. First Mason was at 10 to 1 in the betting while 20 to 1 was freely given against chances of Tokalon.

Popular Horse the Victor.
Ram's Horn victory was very popular for he was probably the most heavily played horse in the race and the only one to be backed down from the opening quotation.

The first price laid against him was 5 to 1 and despite the golden stream which poured in on Dandelion, Walsingham, Flip Flap and others of the most favorite horses, the weight of the play on Ram's Horn forced the book-makers to cut to 9 to 2. The time of the race was 2:03 3-5, which while not threatening Broomstick's world's record of 2:02 4-5, made in this race two years ago is considered very fast for the mile and a quarter distance.

Summaries:
First race, (The Inchestown Stakes, steeple chase, about two miles)—Phantom, 6 to 5, won; Patagonian, 5 to 2, second; Saline, 20 to 1, third. Time 4:25.

Second race, (six furlongs)—Tip Top, 11 to 5, won; Nannie Hodge, 10 to 1, second; First Premium, 10 to 1, third. Time 1:12 4-5.

Third race, (five and a half furlongs)—Fountain Blue 3 to 5, won; Salvadore, 6 to 1, second; Gallant Dan, 25 to 1, second, third. Time 1:07.

Fourth race, (The Brighton Handicap, $25,000, one mile and a quarter)—Ram's Horn, 112 Sewell, 9 to 2, won; First, Mason, 114, Martin, 10 to 1, second; Tokalon 118 Bedell, 20 to 1, third. Time 2:03 3-5. Glorifier, Walsingham, Dandelion, Cedarstain, Flip Flap, Calingorm, Braucas, Dolly Spunker, Hamburg and Kuroki finished in the order named.

Fifth race, (selling, one mile and a sixteenth)—Mary Morris, 11 to 5, won; Charlatan, 5 to 1, second; Eva Green 12 to 1, third. Time 1:47.

Sixth race, (five and a half furlongs)—Altuda, 7 to 1, won; Waterbury 6 to 1, second; Frank Gill, 4 to 1, third. Time 1:07 2-5.

Seventh race, selling, one mile and a sixteenth)—Vino 11 to 10, won; Mandarin, 7 to 2, second; Telephone, 8 to 1, third. Time 1:45 3-5.

Gentlemen in the Saddle.
CINCINNATI, O., July 14.—The Gentlemen's Cup race for gentleman riders at one mile was the feature at Latonia today, and was won by Archute with Mr. Arnold in the saddle.

DEAD MAN'S FACE WASHED.

Victim of Saloon Fight Prepared for Burial Before Police Arrive.

John Downing, an elevator man in the Hotel Astor, was arraigned before Magistrate Moss in the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday on a charge of homicide, and was remanded to the Coroner without bail, says the New York Herald.

Downing is accused of striking John O'Neil, fifty years old, of No. 76 Charlton street, during a quarrel in the saloon of Bartholomew Donohue, at No. 169 Varick street, on Sunday morning, causing O'Neil's death. In falling, O'Neil's head struck an iron radiator, and he was dead when picked up.

Police men said that when they arrived the dead man's face had been washed and his clothing brushed clean, leaving no marks of the fight.

SLAYER OF FANATIC KILLED BY SISTER

ceeded in inducing Maude Hurt, O. V. Hurt's daughter, to marry him. Creffield hid in the woods after he was tarred and under cover of the night returned to the Hurt house where he crawled beneath the floor and remained a week, where he was fed by Mrs. Creffield.

Later Creffield sought refuge in the house of B. E. Starr, at Portland. During his stay there the husband of Mrs. Starr filed a charge against him that led to his sentence of two years in the penitentiary. Mrs. Creffield, in the meantime had become insane and was sent to an asylum about the same time that Creffield went to the Salem prison. Mrs. Starr is a sister of George Mitchell, the slayer. Mitchell also said that Creffield enticed his younger sister Esther into the ranks of the Holy Rollers and disgraced her for life. For these two acts Mitchell swore revenge only to be killed later by his sister Esther.

PORTO RICO GOING AHEAD.

Tobacco Interests Demand Better Transportation Facilities.

(By Associated Press.)
SAN JUAN, PORTO RICO, July 14.—The phenomenal development of the tobacco producing valleys in the Caguas district has created a demand for transportation facilities on a large scale and there are today several petitioners for a franchise to construct a railroad from San Juan to Caguas.

Among these petitioners are representatives of tobacco interest in the United States. The American Railroad Co., which possess a franchise granted in 1900 to extend its lines is taking steps to construct the road in question.
